What is the Beyond Sunday Fellows program?

The Beyond Sunday Fellows program is a confluence of young Catholic leaders from high schools throughout the Archdiocese of St. Louis, who desire to grow and support one another in faith and service. In addition to receiving scholarship support, Fellows engage in annual events, planned by the Roman Catholic Foundation, that center on worship, fellowship, and service.

What are the program guidelines?

- To be eligible, families must demonstrate total household income within the income limits above.
- Preference will be given to families registered in a parish of the Archdiocese of St. Louis.
- Maximum of one Beyond Sunday award per family per school. Families may be eligible for additional scholarship awards through other programs.
- Minimum annual tuition payment of $1,000 per student is required. New this year: All award amounts will be capped at 50% of tuition, excluding fees.
- In addition to the standard application for scholarship assistance, applicants must respond to two short-answer questions and provide contact information for two references.
- Awards renew through graduation, upon annual income requalification.
- Awards are transferrable to other Beyond Sunday-eligible high schools within the Archdiocese of St. Louis.

What else do I need to know?

- Due to high demand and limited resources, selection is competitive and cannot be guaranteed to all applicants.
- An estimated total of 30 new awards will be granted in ninth grade and an estimated total of 5 new awards will be granted in upper grades (tenth through twelfth).
- An estimated total of 120 currently awarded students will requalify for 2018-19 scholarships.
